

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the third Sunday in June has been set aside nationally as Father's Day; and

WHEREAS, Fatherhood of every kind is a summons to the best that is within man. It is human, but it expresses the divine; and

WHEREAS, Fathers and children are depending more and more on companionship, mutual understanding, sharing of interest and occupations.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harlan J. Bushfield, Governor of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, June 15, 1941, as and I urge the people of South Dakota to set aside this day to honor their fathers, both living and departed, in an appropriate manner.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 3rd day of June, 1941.
